Re: Illinois Appellate Court Rules in Favor of the Village of Huntley in Horizon Lawsuit

Date: April 1, 2008

Information

The Appellate Court of Illinois-Second Districts' March 28th order affirmed McHenry County Circuit Court Judge Sullivan's decision on January 11, 2007 ruling in favor of the Village of Huntley in the 1998 Huntley / Horizon lawsuit. The decision sustains the Village's position that the 1998 annexation of Huntley Investments LLC did not violate the terms and provisions of the 1992 Prime Group (now Horizon Group) Annexation Agreement.

The Appellate Court order determined that the Village of Huntley did not inappropriately authorize any connections or use of the public utilities constructed or reserved by the Horizon Group.
